

CLARKSON INTEGRATOR

SATURDAY, DEC 8, 1956

WNTC Begins New Program On Dec. 11

Radio station WNTC will present a new type of program from 9:05-9:30 on Tuesday evening, "Let's Get Together with P. C. (Potsdam-Clarkson). This will be a "live" show featuring talent from both campuses. Your support is needed to make this show a success.

Tune in to radio station WNTC 640 on your dial, Tuesday evening, Dec. 11, at 9:05 p. m. when Nancy Pane brings you the first "live" show.

After you have heard the show, any suggestions or comments you may have will be greatly appreciated. Also if you have a group with talent, know a group with talent, or if you yourself would like to be on the "live" show, contact John Watson, Clarkson or Radio Station WNTC.

On Wednesday, Dec. 11, the "live" show will present a drama, "The Other Wise Men." It will feature Jane Effley, John Delaney, Edward Kokernak, Ted Maraun, Tom Ford, Patricia Degnei and Lois Jardine. The play is a Christmas Story directed by Mrs. McCreptol, an English professor from Potsdam State.